Rudy Buttignol:

Marketing Your Documentary Internationally

June 20 2007 - 7:30 PM

DOC BC is pleased to invite you for an intimate and interactive two hour intensive workshop on co-financing and pre-selling your documentary internationally.

Full of practical and creative guidance, this workshop is perfect for the experienced or emerging filmmaker covering acquisitions, co-productions, license fees, co-financing, and getting your projects to markets.

Presented by Rudy Buttignol, leader in Canadian television and film and newly appointed Interim President and CEO of Knowledge Network.

We look forward to seeing you there!

Rudy Buttignol

With a distinguished career that spans over thirty years as a programmer, producer, commissioning editor, director and writer, Mr. Buttignol is well known for his work helping the Canadian film and television industry thrive in a rapidly changing communications environment.

A founding member of DOC, he was also central in bringing the Hot Docs Festival to life.
